Let's Talk....Kids

The Three Great Loves

To guide our civic activity at church and our social justice advocacy, the UCC proposes that the church has Three Great Loves - love of children, love of neighbor, love of creation - and we speak up when policies encroach on these.

On Valentine's Day weekend, we will celebrate our love of neighbor by packing up new underwear donations for the VOA Women's Resource Center.

On Saturday, February 15 at 4:30 p.m., middle schoolers and church friends and family of all ages are invited to make cookies for the event at church. We will have a guest expert cookie decorator guiding us to make cookies in the "Three Great Loves" theme.

On Undie Sunday, February 16, all are invited to an intergenerational luncheon and workshop after the worship service. This will be like the "Sock It To Me" event held in the fall - all ages working and learning together.

We appreciate you taking your family shopping for women's (or if you prefer, children's) underwear!

Let's Talk...Adults

How to Talk to Your (Church) Family about Sex

Thank you so much to everyone who filled out our Our Whole Lives (OWL) survey! OWL is a comprehensive, developmentally appropriate, and science-based sexuality education curriculum for youth in UCC churches. We now also have a brand new "older adult" OWL curriculum!

To get ready for the relaunch of HUCC's OWL program after Easter, we would like to invite adults in our congregation to prayerfully consider becoming trained as an OWL facilitator. Here is the list of upcoming trainings. Please contact Teri Jewell or Pastor Chelsea for more information and how to register.

OWL training for middle and high school levels: February 21-23 in Grand Junction; April 24-26 in Ogden

OWL training for adult levels: May 14-16 at La Foret, Colorado

OWL training for all levels: November 13-15 at La Foret, Colorado

Friends of Jan and Jesus

Wherein Pastor Chelsea interviews some of Jan's friends, and learns how good it is to have someone to walk with you.

Come meet prophets old and young this Sunday!

Epiphany is the season of light, and this Sunday is Candlemas, the ancient church festival balanced halfway between the winter solstice and the spring equinox. In this dark week, we recognize we need light in our lives, to give us hope to move forward.

This Sunday's scripture will celebrate the "in-between" child Jesus, who is no longer a Christmas newborn but not yet a full-grown prophet. It is a time to celebrate the young people in our midst. We recognize that, just as they are in-between and growing, so our church is in-between and growing because of our pastoral search and transition. Let us walk together on this journey of "in-between"!

In worship we will hear from some unlikely prophets, including a special goose named Mathilda. We will consider the example of the child Jesus, who is promised to be "the light to reveal God to all."

Service will begin with Holy Communion, before the children leave for Sunday School. Let's have fun trying something new!

Book Recommendation:

Ever wondered if there's a different way of doing church that might meet your family's spiritual needs in a new way? Wondering about the "method behind the madness" of HUCC's new Sock It To Me and Undie Sunday intergenerational service workshops? This 2018 anthology brings together tons of recent research on the benefits of intergenerational faith formation for people all along the developmental spectrum, including members of our community with disabilities. You might say that "a church that truly prays and plays together, stays together!"

Article Recommendation:

Pastor Chelsea's call agreement included the services of a clergy coach. In December we contracted with Pinnacle Leadership Associates. They have a new article about how pastors can learn from the deep yet simple faith of children, by remembering to KISS: "keep it simple (stupid)."

The Clapper

"Applauding Our Kids"

It's time for Sunday School teachers to renew their background checks. (Churches abuse-proof their classrooms like schools do.) Meanwhile, kids have been providing their own form of "background check" by skipping class to hang out with their former teachers at church! Now there's a seal of approval that means something special!
